REPORT DISCRIMINATION

The police is here to enforce the constitution, and to help fight discrimination. Have you been discriminated against?

- Is the perpetrator still in sight? Always call 112. We will try to catch the suspect in the act.
- Has the perpetrator left? Then call 0900-8844. Try to remember exactly what was said and done and try to remember what the perpetrator looked like. You can file a report via 0900-8844 or make an appointment to file a report.
- By filing a report, you are requesting the police to start investigating the perpetrator. After the report has been filed, an (assistant) public prosecutor will determine whether discrimination has occurred according to the law.
